BALLOTS OPENED IN COURT

Mr. Parish Finally Gains His Point in Contest Case.

Tellers Appointed by Judge Vinsonhaler Legin to Count the Votes Cast Last Fall for County Attorney.

In the Parish Shields election contest the first package of ballots was opened yesterday morning after a most strenuous effort on the part of the prevent by technical objections such a proceeding. Shields and the contestant has been required by the court to overcome every objection to Leech Lake, Minn. When the court ruled that the testimony of County Clerk Haverly and his assistant as to the receipt of the ballots from the

The package of hallots that precinct was shown to the package contained the ballots used in the precinct in which he acted as judge, and the court then granted the request of the contestant to order the package opened. The ballots, including those unused and spoiled, as well as those voted and counted, THIS WITNESS REVERSES HIMSELF. were then scrutinized and identified by the witness, after which the court ordered that they be counted by the tellers.

A judge from each election precinct is to be called to identify the packages and ballots by the same method as was followed in regard to the first precinct and in this way the contestant hopes to secure a count the votes cast. Frank Mahoney and Henry Farmer have been named as tellers.

Parish Gains Pive Votes.

A gain of five votes for Parish was made in the case in the afternoon.
